

I find myself baffled by the fact that you are even considering limiting owner ship to just a few giant corporations, shame on you America is founded on freedom of speech. Every time you limit Americans you kill democracy. Please do not do this, we need many voices and owners. We just commented today about being bombarded about the Laci Peterson Case on TV and wondering if there is anything else going on in this country or the world?